GRADATIM 1972

*SACRED HEART COLLEGE
BELMONT, NORTH CAROLINA*

The cornerstone of every college is people growing together as a strong body of friends, made even stronger by their experiences shared throughout the years. And if this structure, which we call a college, is to survive, friendship is the cement that will hold this body together.

SISTERS OF MERCY
BELMONT, NORTH CAROLINA

*Shy smiles and simple hellos began the many friendships in the days of unfamiliarity that are lasting here
and growing still.*

Life would be worthless if it were only self-seeking, but with the aid of "friends," we search beyond ourselves. "A friend is someone who knows all about you and likes you just the same."

Individual differences are assimilated as we realize that they are not barriers but stepping stones in the formation of true bonds of unity.

*Being a small school one sees few unfamiliar faces
but the "soul"
of the familiar ones become part of us as we realize their capacity to help us grow in understanding ourselves and our world.*

*Friendship is not a sometime thing;
its strength lies in knowing that it will endure the bad times as well as the good.*

*True friendship requires time and patience in understanding the idiosyncrasies of the individual,
but repays itself
in the end when one can truly say
"this in my friend."*

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Friendship is the passionate and abiding desire on the part of two or more people to produce together conditions under which each can be, and spontaneously express, his real self; to produce together an intellectual soil and an emotional climate in which each can flourish, far superior to what either could achieve alone.

MAGNIFICENT RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENT

At Sacred Heart College Sister Stephen has greatly increased the physical facilities. Doyle Residence Hall and McCarthy Library were dedicated in 1966.

Previous to her coming to Sacred Heart College Sister Stephen contributed to the Diocese of Raleigh as Supervisor of Schools under Monsignor Gilbert and then as Principal of Asheville Catholic and Charlotte Catholic High Schools.

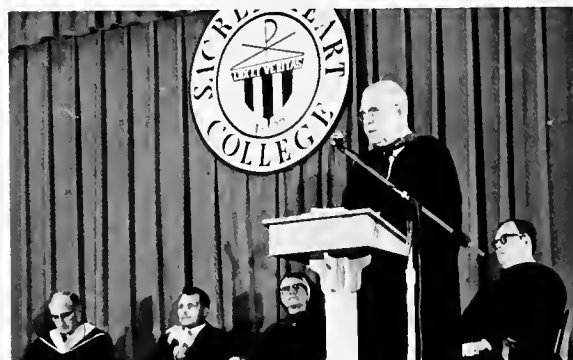

During her term of office Sister Stephen enlarged the faculty and greatly broadened the scope of the educational curriculum at Sacred Heart.

Accreditation by the Southern Association, December 3, 1971. A great day in the history of the College.

Kent Residence Hall opened in November of '68.

Graduation — 1971

Sister Mary Stephen Monohan, R.S.M.
President of Sacred Heart College
1962-1972

A college is not recognized because of its buildings and material assets, but rather by the quality of the people who are involved with the institution.

No one person can be responsible for the development of a college, but it takes the leadership of one person to coordinate and direct the individual contributions needed to make it grow.

Under the guidance of Sister M. Stephen, President since 1962, Sacred Heart has been transformed from a two-year junior college to a four-year liberal arts college. Since she has been here many progressive programs have been added to the college curriculum.

One of Sister Stephen's major responsibilities is to interpret the aims of the college to the students, faculty, alumnae, and Board of Trustees. This fosters a unifying element among the members of the college community. Sister Stephen's good will and tireless efforts have been an inspiration to all.

ART

By offering a comprehensive curriculum, the Art Department has as its goal the development of the interested individual's visual communication skills, creative thinking and expression, aesthetic awareness and knowledge of art past and present. The curriculum is so structured that it encourages continued innovation and expression. It offers two areas of concentration: the broad field of art itself and another in which students who are interested in the educational aspects through the media of art may select Art Education. The students exhibit, throughout the year, various works of art they have created.

PSYCHOLOGY

The Psychology Department offers an undergraduate program which has a strong liberal arts context and thus provides a general understanding of psychology as a way of studying human behavior. Under the direction of the Department's new chairman, Dr. Lewandowski, and the new teaching assistant, Karen Henry, a temporary animal colony was established, and students began working on animal experimentation and research. This year saw the establishment of the Psychology Club. The program also provides a background for students preparing for a variety of other professions in which an understanding of human behavior is important.

EDUCATION

The Education Department's primary objective is the preparation of teachers who are professionally competent and acutely aware of the responsibilities and privileges entailed in their involvement with the youth in the contemporary American school.

The Department is concentrating its resources on the preparation of elementary school teachers on the Early Childhood (K-3) and the Intermediate (4-9) levels. Plans for a Special Education program are now underway.

Music courses are also included in the education program.

INTEGRATED STUDIES

American Studies explores the many facets of American culture. The purpose of this program is to offer students a broader understanding of the unique quality of the American experience and to prepare them for career opportunities in museum work, research, teaching, and to some extent, for general business positions as well as graduate study in the field.

General Studies allows the student to explore a variety of different fields and to structure a program specifically tailored to her individual needs and interests. Such a program of study makes the entire curriculum available to the individual student. This program provides the kind of background helpful in business careers and may serve to indicate the student's choice of future graduate study.

SOCIAL WELFARE

The Social Welfare Department combines classroom instruction, individual supervision, and actual work in a social agency in order to help the student learn the method necessary to help people function, within society, both as individuals and in groups.

The Department is designed primarily for students who plan to seek immediate employment in the field and those who plan graduate social work education. The program also offers courses for students who plan to prepare for employment or FURTHER education in the human SERVICES in general.

SECRETARIAL SCIENCE

The Secretarial Science Department has as its primary objective to prepare secretaries to take their places in the business world after the completion of two years of college work. Emphasis is placed on a strong liberal arts background. Students may elect the general secretarial program or the medical secretarial program. The 1972 class will be the last to graduate under the two-year program since the college is now a four-year institution.

ORGANIZATIONS

"A really noble friendship, which realizes the higher ideals of the relation, must be open-eyed; friendship ought never to lose its sight. Our friendship is really helpful to others, not when it makes things easy for them, gratifying their desires and yielding to their humours, but when it develops the best that is in them; when it puts them on their mettle, makes their weaknesses clear, and spurs them to the acquirement of the strength which overcomes. Our friends, said Emerson with characteristic insight, are those who make us do what we can."

Hamilton Wright Mabie

Student Government; Senate

Determined student leaders were able to work more efficiently with a revised constitution. The most exciting proposals it sponsored were visitations and drinking in the dorms. Another aim was the Club 21-Snack Bar which was to be built in the Summer House. Student leaders also sponsored "Good News Youth Rally," a leadership conference and retreats at Maggie Valley.

A

House Council; Hall Representatives

The House Concil found itself at times caught between the students desires and the administrations demands. A great deal of credit should go to them for their unending efforts to satisfy the students.

During the year the council sponsored activities such as a Halloween and St. Patricks Day party.

In order to decrease the amount of house meetings the duties of the hall representatives were broadened. Their main function was to attend meetings with the House Council and relay the information to their halls.

Judicial Boards; Review; Appeals

This years newly devised judicial system has proven a great success. It is composed of a Student Government Board which encompasses all infractions not under the jurisdiction of the House Council; a House Council Judi Board which resides over all dormitory violations; a Dean of Students Review Board which reviews all cases involving suspensions and expulsions; and also a Court of Appeals Board which hears any appeals from either the Student Government or House Council Judi Boards.

The main coordinator for the entire judicial system is the Chief Justice.

Afro American; International Relations

The Afro-American Union is a joint association with Belmont Abbey College. Its main functions are to search into the working of the Black conscience and to promote an understanding of the role of the black man in today's society.

Another organization is the International Relations which is established specifically for the foreign students. Co-sponsoring a lecture by Congressman Broyhill, a visit to the Mint Museum, and a tour of Charlottes Law Enforcement Center were among the various activities sponsored by IRC this year.

National Education; Psychology Club

To help acquaint perspective teachers with the history and ethics of the teaching profession the Student North Carolina Association of Educators sponsored numerous activities. They began the year with a lecture by Mr. Allen Craig on "First Year Teacher and the Problems They Face." S.N.C.A.E. major event was a math workshop conducted by Mrs. Bologna.

This year a new organization made its way into S.H.C. Under the direction of Dr. Lewendowski the Psychology Club was able to publish a periodic newsletter, "As the Wind Blows." Other projects they sponsored were a lecture by Dr. Wade Williams and a wine booth at the bazaar.

Legion of Mary; Women's Recreation Association

The Legion of Mary is an association of Catholics whose primary purpose is to promote Christian ideals and render services to places where there is a need. During the year Legion members offered their assistance to Holy Angels Nursery, local hospitals, and rest homes.

Under the leadership of Brigette Truesdale, Women's Recreation Association provided intramural activities. Other recreational events were the traditional North vs. South basketball game and the faculty vs. student volleyball game.

Cheerleaders;

Collegiates

The Cheerleaders launched the year by rallying support to the Belmont Abbey basketball team. The squad led by Anita Mansour, acquired new uniforms which accented their enthusiasm as they performed stunts and routines.

Getting off to a late start this year the Collegiates performed precision dances during half time in Wheeler Center. Flashing their colors of blue, white, and red they helped to make an enjoyable night.

A. CHEERLEADERS: N. Mansour, Captain; J. Caldwell, Co-Captain.

D. COLLEGIATES: C. King, Co-Captain; J. Sordello, Captain.

Golden Hearts; Order of Diana

One of the most active clubs on campus has been the Golden Hearts. Together with the brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon they sponsored various service projects, bake sales, and weekly parties.

Equally active were the members of the Order of Diana who with the brothers of Tau Kappa Epsilon sponsored an Orphan's Christmas party. Other projects included a half price night at the Gay 90's, raffles, and a barbeque.

Pi Kap Little Sisters; College Union

Newly organized this year was the Little Sisters of Pi Kap. Mainly operating as a social organization with the brothers of Pi Kappa Phi, it also acts as a service club to the school and local community.

The College Union, which is mainly a social organization, is a cooperative union with the students of Belmont Abbey College. A concert a month, a raft race, forums, Sunday night movies and weekly "friday night things" were among the various activities sponsored by them this year. Highlighting the Unions achievements were the Homecoming Weekend, during basketball season, and Spring Weekend.

One large aim, the building of a snack bar, was successfully achieved due to the increase in fees and the working of Father Bradely and Brother Gregory.

Through determination and hard work, the College Union provided students with a more diversified social life.

Gradatim; Ventriloquist

Headed by Kathy Coye the school's newspaper was successful in changing its name from "The Beat" to "The Ventriloquist." The publication which they produced continued its primary aim to serve as a source of communication on campus.

The Gradatim has attempted to record the events which occurred during the academic year of 1971-1972. The staff hopes that this book will fulfill not only its requirements but its expectations as well.

Orientation; Who's Who

The orientation program is set up each year under the guidance of the Student Government, and this year under the leadership of Ann McFadden, its purpose was to acquaint the new students with the many aspects of college life and life in our surrounding community.

Each year a committee from the Administration and Student Government determines the most outstanding students to be published among Who's Who in American Colleges. This awards program was founded in 1934 and today over 1000 colleges participate in this program.

A. ORIENTATION: R. O'Donald; E. Drayton; A. Casinelli; J. Telese; N. Morris; M. Hartman; P. Harrigan; G. Hackett; L. Grant; M. Nicholas; G. Shelton; A. McFadden, Chairman; E. Perillo; B. Craig.

B. WHO'S WHO: V. Stewart; M. Truesdale; B. Truesdale; S. Pendergrass.

Why:

Because we realize that there are too many people, who throughout this whole time, will continually feel the pangs of hunger. The blood that runs sluggishly through veins, is not rich like they live with sad faces and long bodies, while their yellow skin proclaims their pain.
 For them the world is yellow
 - the color of famine.

What we are doing now is to help people who we have, what we do

All proceeds to be to WIST under state permission and for a needy family

ACTIVITIES

"There may be moments in friendship, as in love, when silence is beyond words. The faults of our friend may be clear to us, but it is well to seem to shut our eyes to them. Friendship is usually treated by the majority of mankind as a tough and everlasting thing which will survive all manner of bad treatment. But this is an exceedingly great and foolish error; it may die in an hour of a single unwise word; its conditions of existence are that it should be dealt with delicately and tenderly, being as it is a sensible plant and not a roadside thistle. We must not expect our friend to be above humanity."

GUEST SPEAKERS

James T. Broyhill, Congressman from the 10th Congressional District, was the principal speaker at the Honors Convocation in Oct. and Dr. Smylie, President of Queens College, was the speaker at the Feb. Convocation. Both speeches proved to be informative and entertaining.

Doing its best to present something new and different the College Union sponsored John Kolich, a hypnotist. The enthusiasm by which he was received was apparent by the extended length of the show.

Lisa Sergio, a specialist and lecturer in world affairs visited our campus on Oct. 11 and 12. Miss Sergio's lectures included topics such as "Global Struggle for Power, Prestige and Oil in the Middle East" and "The Role of Faith in an Age of Science."

FINE ARTS SERIES

Throughout the year the Gaston Fine Arts Council sponsored a fabulous series of entertainment which included music from the old Renaissance Period to the Jazz Age.

Loonis McGlohon and Orchestra started the year off by presenting a concert on the "Evolution of Jazz". During the month of November, Florence Warner, one of today's most gifted singer-songwriters, appeared in concert. Winding up first semester was a lecture and demonstration on American art by Mary Babcock Lassiter.

Other fine entertainment sponsored by the Council were George Riabikoff, The Charlotte Renaissance and Baroque Ensemble, and two programs by the North Carolina School of the Arts.

N. C. POETS; NEW CREATION

Aided by a grant obtained from the North Carolina Arts Council, Sacred Heart was able to have three of North Carolinas Poets perform on our campus. After Paul Baker Newman, Heather Miller, and Fred Chappell presented their original poetry, they attended a reception where they informally discussed their views with students and faculty.

On Dec. 11, Sacred Heart Gym was the scene of a Good News Youth Rally, sponsored by the student government. The group which performed was called the "New Creation". Their program included singing and a sharing of happenings and experiences of the group with the audience.

NORTH-SOUTH BALL GAME

By far the most exciting event sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association was the traditional North-South basketball game.

Coached by Father David Hagen, the North won the game by a score of 30 to 19. It was the first time in the history of Sacred Heart that the North was able to overcome the South's undefeated record.

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE; RAP SESSIONS

In an effort to allow students, faculty, and administration a time to get together and honestly and openly discuss many questions at hand a Leadership Conference was held in Kent Hall. This conference, for those who attended, proved to be both refreshing and informative.

Open dorms, religion, witchcraft, and the college curriculum were among the many topics discussed at the newly organized Wednesday night "rap sessions". Under the leadership of Father Hagen and Betty Little the communications problem on campus was eased a little through these weekly sessions.

TOM SELDON; SEALS—CROFT

The College Union began the month of December with a fantastic concert given by Seals and Croft. Once on stage it was hard for the group to leave for the students requested that they continue to play. From the moment of the first song right up until the end, the audience never lost its enthusiasm.

After attending a convention in Kansas, the Union was able to book in concert Tom Seldon. His type of music was a little different than the other groups that performed this year but he proved to be a tremendous performer and entertainer.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

For the first time, Homecoming for Belmont Abbey and Sacred Heart was held during basketball season. The Abbey basketball team lost to Campbell College in a closely fought game. At halftime the announcement of the Homecoming Queen was made and Charlotte Athletic Club sponsored a gymnastic exhibition.

Immediately following open dorms, on Saturday of Homecoming, the College Union sponsored a Happy Hour in the Pine Room. Providing the entertainment was a group of students from the Abbey called Quail.

HOMECOMING QUEEN—COURT

This year's Homecoming Queen nominations were selected by each class from Sacred Heart and voted upon by both Belmont Abbey and Sacred Heart students. Laura McCarthy, a freshman from Newport News, Virginia was selected as Homecoming Queen. First runner up was Pat O'Brien, a senior from Greenbelt, Maryland. Barbara McMahon, a sophomore from Huntington, New York and Mary Werner, a freshman from Freeport, New York were tied for 2nd runner up.

During halftime of the basketball game the announcement of the winners was made and Janice Krempa, last year's Queen, crowned Laura and presented her with a corsage and 12 long-stem roses.

*"Oh, the comfort — the inexpressible comfort of feeling safe with a person,
Having neither to weigh thoughts,
Nor measure words — but pouring them
All right out — just as they are —
Chaff and grain together —
Certain that a faithful hand will Take and sift them —
Keep what is worth keeping —
And with the breath of kindness Blow the rest away."*

SENIOR MEMORIES

We came wide-eyed children, content with the thrill of the moment, choosing friends for silly and simple reasons. But slowly, sometimes painfully, our values and friendships changed. It no longer mattered what you had, but simply, who you were.

Who would think in 1968 that we would still be here in 1972. We came over 200 strong, but our strength and spirit did not diminish, though our numbers decreased. While times have changed from scenes of water fights to "unsuccessful riots," all was taken in stride and termed a part of the maturation process. Now we take this spirit with us as we go our separate ways.

(A) J. Chamberlain, M. Porzel, F. Geib (B) 2nd west (C) K. Coman, A. Disdier, J. Winterich, R. Sheenan (D) M. Divalentin (E) McFarlands (F) C. Kaine, K. Wood, R. Knapp (G) M. Young, A. White (H) D. Derda Ballard.

Coming with different aspirations, we were quickly unified by the long hard process of initiation. At this time our first friendships were formed — some of them withered while others grew, but we were always the better for them.

Emerging from out "sophomore slump," we became juniors with a declared major and a definite purpose. Passed the half-way mark, our goals seemed more attainable.

As we approached our long-awaited senior year, for many of us three years had passed too quickly. But there is a time for learning and a time to act on that learning, and our time had come.

As the seniors leave their home away from home, they take with them all the memories of the years gone by, remembering the good and the bad times. But more than that, they leave their security base fully knowing that the friends they have made in the past four years will remain with them forever.
